SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

On November 1, 1995, Congress enacted the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995 ("DPRA"), Pub. L. 104-39, 109 Stat. 336 (1995). The DPRA gave to sound recording copyright owners an exclusive right to perform their works publicly by means of a digital audio transmission subject to a statutory license. 17 U.S.C. 106(6); 17 U.S.C. 114.

The statutory license requires adherence to regulations under which copyright owners may receive reasonable notice of use of their sound recordings under the statutory license and under which entities performing the sound recordings shall keep and make available records of such use. 17 U.S.C. 114(f)(2). On May 13, 1996, the Copyright Office initiated a rulemaking proceeding to promulgate regulations to govern the notice and recordkeeping requirements. 61 FR 22004 (May 13, 1996). This rulemaking concluded with the issuance of interim rules to govern the filing of an initial notice of digital transmissions of sound recordings under statutory license. 37 CFR 201.35, and the filing of reports of use of sound recordings under statutory license, 37 CFR 201.36. See 63 FR 34289 (June 24, 1998).

Since promulgation of the interim rules, several entities have filed Initial Notices with the Copyright Office in accordance with § 201.35. However, the majority of these Initial Notices have not provided all of the information required under § 201.35. As stated in § 201.35(c), "[t]he Copyright Office does not provide printed forms for the filing of Initial Notices." However, the Copyright Office is amending this section to state that a suggested format for the Initial Notice will be posted on the Copyright Office website, in an effort to better ensure that Initial Notices filed with the Office provide all of the information required under § 201.35.

National Primary Drinking Water Regulation: Consumer Confidence Reports; Correction

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule; correction.

SUMMARY: EPA published in the Federal Register of August 19, 1998, a final rule setting out the requirements for annual drinking water quality reports that water suppliers must provide to their customers. An appendix to that rule mistakenly referred to "leaching from PVC pipes" as a major source of tetrachloroethylene in drinking water. This rule deletes that incorrect reference. The correction has no impact on water systems that have already produced their reports.

DATES: Effective on September 14, 1999.
